HUMAN RIGHTS ARTS & FILM FESTIVAL

I AM, YOU ARE, WE ARE

LAUNCH: Thursday 7 May, 6–8pm

EXHIBITION: 7 – 31 May

Olga Cironis, Wog, 2014, archival pearl and gold leaf, 130 x 95 cm

Curated by Anna Louise Richardson, 'I AM, YOU ARE, WE ARE' explores the experience of migration and the 'outsider' in Australia. Presented as part of the Human Rights Arts & Film Festival, join us for the opening of this powerful exhibition on Thursday 7 May at 6pm in the special pop-up location of St Paul's Cathedral.

Bringing together the work of Olga Cironis, Eva Fernández and Marziya Mohammedali, this exhibition provides a visual exploration of three women's experiences in making and exploring a new home. Engaging artists whose works examine themes of identity and dislocation, 'I AM, YOU ARE, WE ARE' examines the Australian cultural landscape and its attitudes to welcoming or accepting difference. Embedded within the broader Australian narrative of xenophobia and privilege, this exhibition employs photography to consider alternative perceptions of home as a means of reassessing the politicised nature of ethnicity in Australia.

Presented in association with the Human Rights Arts & Film Festival.

This exhibition is supported by NAVA. The Australian Artists' Grant is a NAVA initiative, made possible through the generous sponsorship of Mrs Janet Holmes à Court and the support of the Visual Arts Board, Australia Council for the Arts.
